

POET'S CORNER

The following beautiful lines are from the 30th number of a writer in the New York Commercial Advertiser, under the signature of The Amphibologist: thus they are introduced:

"I am writing now in the still & beautiful repose of a summer's night. The moon is riding in sad and solemn majesty upon her undisturbed course; calm, pale, and saintlike, she moves upon the dark blue sky; like the christian, mournful with the semblance of mortality, but directing to a better world his fleeting footsteps. If a few wild notes of a long neglected lyre may harmonize with the tranquil and soothing scene, I insert them for your amusement."

THE SUMMER MIDNIGHT.
The breeze of night has sunk to rest,
Upon the river's tranquil breast;
And every bird has sought her nest,
Where silent is her minstrelsy.
The queen of heaven is sailing high,
A pale bark on the azure sky,
Where not a breath is heard to sigh—
So deep the soft tranquility.

Forgotten now the heat of day
That on the burning waters lay,
The moon of night her mantle gray
Spreads, from the sun's high blazonry,
But glittering in that gentle night
There gleams a line of silvery light,
As tremulous on the shores of white
It hovers sweet and playfully.

At peace the distant shallop rides;
Not as when dashing o'er her sides
The roaring bay's unruly tides
Were beating round her gloriously;
But every sail is furled and still,
Silent the seaman's whistle shrill,
While dreamy slumbers seem to thrill
With parted hours of ecstasy.

Stars of the many spangled heaven!
Faintly this night your beams are given,
Tho' proudly where your hosts are driven
Ye rear your dazzling galaxy;
Since far and wide a softer hue
Is spread across the plains of blue,
Where in bright chorus ever true
For ever swells your harmony.

Oh for some sadly dying note
Upon this silent hour to float,
Where from the bustling world remote,
The lyre might wake its melody;
One feeble strain is all can swell
From nine almost deserted shells,
In mournful accents yet to tell
That slumbers not its minstrelsy.

There is an hour of deep repose
That yet upon my heart shall close,
When all that nature dreads & knows
Shall burst upon me wondrously;
O may I then awake for ever
My harp to rapture's high endeavour,
And as from earth's vain scene I sever,
Be lost in Immortality!

BY AUTHORITY.

LAW OF MARYLAND.

An act to establish a new Election District in Baltimore county.

Passed Feb 8, 1819.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new election district, to be called The Eighth District, shall be established in Baltimore county, which district shall be bounded as follows: beginning at the head of tide water, at the mouth of the Little Falls of Gunpowder, and running up the said falls to the old Harford road near Amos's mill, and from thence down the said road, passing Cromwell's bridge, to Thomas Miller's dwelling house on said road; and from thence to the head of the White Marsh Run, and down the said run to tide water on Bird's river, and thence round with the shore of said river and Gunpowder River to the place of beginning.

2. And be it enacted, That all elections for said district shall be held at the public house therein now kept by Abraham King, under the like authority and regulations as elections are or may be held in other districts of the county, and all voters residing within the limits of said district, and none other, shall vote at the elections, and under the like privileges and duties of voters in their other districts respectively.

3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the general assembly after the next election of delegates, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution and form of government therein contained, from and after the first Monday in October eighteen hundred and twenty one, shall be taken and considered, and shall continue to be valid, as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of gift from Richard H. Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wit: A plantation on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H. Harwood resided, about three miles above M'Coy's Tavern, containing about 412 1/2 acres. The roads from M'Coy's up the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses, a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 1/4 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town. For terms apply to the subscribers, HENRY H. HARWOOD, RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos. Annapolis, Sept. 3.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette and American of Baltimore, are requested to insert the above twice a week for three weeks, and forward their accounts to this office.

FOR SALE,

The Houses, now occupied by Mrs. Robinson as a Boarding house, near the Farmers Bank. They will be sold together, or separate, to suit purchasers. Apply to

FOR SALE,

A NEGRO WOMAN, who is well acquainted with house work of every description, and her two Children; one Girl, of about 14 years of age, and the other a Boy about 18 months old—These Negroes will be sold for life to any purchaser who will not carry them out of the state. They are not offered for sale for any fault committed by them. A credit of 12 months will be given on the purchasers giving bond with good security, conditioned for the payment of the purchase money. Inquire of the Printer.

June 3.

300 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living on South River, in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, on Tuesday night the 4th inst. three young Negro Men:

MOSES,

Alias Moses Johnson, aged about 30 years, about 5 feet, 8 or 9 inches high, very black and well set, roland & pleasant countenance when spoken to, no particular marks recollected; his clothing when he eloped, was a round drab coloured overjacket, trowsers of mixed brown cloth, shirt of common osenaburg, and felt hat.

DAVY BOSTON,
Very nearly of the same description of Moses, (aged about 20 years,) except his complexion, which is rather of a yellow cast, has a mark on the left side of his mouth, or rather on the cheek, which is about one inch long, and raised the thickness of a large knitting needle; this mark cannot fail of being perceived if examined, by which Davy cannot be mistaken—his clothes it is deemed unnecessary to describe, as he has no doubt changed them.

DICK BOSTON,

Aged about 18 years, brother to Davy, rather slender, and of a dark complexion, approaching to black; is about 5 feet 8 inches high, has a fine set of teeth, thick lips, and rather a surly countenance; his clothing consisting of short blue coat and pantaloons, osenaburg shirt, and a wool hat. Each of them were in possession of a pair of strong shoes well nailed.

I will give for the apprehension of the above described negroes, if secured in any goal in the state of Maryland so that I get them again, 160 dollars, or 50 dollars for either of them, and if taken out of the state, and secured in any goal so that I get them again, I will give 300 dollars, and in proportion for either of them.

THE STEAM BOAT Maryland,

CAPTAIN VICKARS.

This Superior Vessel is now prepared, and has commenced the tour of operations for which she has been destined. She has been planned, constructed and equipped, by the ablest Artists, and the Materials, Machinery, Furniture and Workmanship, are all of the best kinds. These have all been provided and applied under the constant superintendence of Captain Barber & Captain Vickars, in alternate attendance, as the skilful Agents of the Company; and both are very deeply interested in the undertaking. The greatest confidence may therefore be reposed in the soundness of the vessel, and the safety of her machinery. The accommodations on board, and the arrangement of the apartments for elegance, convenience and security, cannot be exceeded; and her exterior appearance is extremely beautiful.

She will leave Annapolis every Monday & Thursday, at 8 o'clock in the morning—call at Annapolis to land and receive passengers—and proceed to Baltimore in the evening of the same days where she will arrive at 6 o'clock. Returning, she will leave Baltimore every Wednesday & Saturday, at the same hour in the morning—call at Annapolis to land and receive passengers—and proceed to Easton in the evening of the same days, where she will arrive at the like hour.

Passengers are respectfully invited to avail themselves of this agreeable conveyance; and they are assured that every care and attention shall be exerted to give them satisfaction.

N.B. Persons wishing to take Horses and Carriages on board, are requested to have them sent to the boat an hour previous to her sailing.

A Mail Stage leaves Crawford's Tavern in Georgetown, early every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for Annapolis, and on its return route leaves Williams's Tavern in Annapolis, early every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, passing through Queen Anne and Marlboro' in its route, offering a convenient and speedy conveyance to travellers going either to Baltimore or the Eastern Shore, as well as to those going from the Eastern Shore to the City of Washington.

At a Meeting

Of the Orphans Court for Anne Arundel County, on the 5th day of June 1819, were present,

The Worshipful
James Mackubin,
Horsie Ridout, and
Lewis Neth, jun. Esquires.

The court order and direct that no notice be given in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligence, once in each week for the space of six successive weeks, before the 4th day of September next, notifying the legal representatives of Alexander Munroe, to appear on or before that day to receive their proportion of the personal estate of Thomas Callahan, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.

By order,
John Gassaway,
Reg. Wills A. A. county.

Land for Sale.

I will sell the land whereon I live, situated on Herring Bay, in Anne Arundel county, about 20 miles from the city of Annapolis, and about 50 miles from Baltimore; it contains between nine hundred and one thousand acres, is considered by judges to be inferior to no land in the county for the cultivation of tobacco, and is noted upon by planter and capitalist of great improvement by clover, a great proportion of the land is covered with wood timber, & may be easily carried to market, having the advantage of fine landing places, being bounded by the water. Persons inclined to purchase it is presumed, will view the premises, which they are invited to do. The terms will be accommodating on payment of part of the purchase money in hand. For terms apply to Nicholas Brewer, who is authorised to contract for the land.
